

call for proposals

°efp future frames – 10 new filmmakers to follow

at the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival

the programme will present

10 European film students or graduates at the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival (KVIFF June 29 – July 7 / the filmmakers should be available in Karlovy Vary from June 30 to July 4. The final dates are to be confirmed).

The films will be selected by the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival.

nomination criteria:

- the nominated director is a student or graduate (2017/18) from a film-, artschool or university
 - the (diploma-)film is produced in 2017 or 2018
 - the film shouldn't have had its premiere earlier than August 1, 2017
 - the film shall be a short- or mid-length (up to 60 minutes) production
 - the film needs to be a Czech premiere
 - the director is able to be present at KVIFF (June 30 – July 4, 2018, the final dates are to be confirmed)
-

the programme includes:

- Presentation of the 10 directors in 4 screening slots during the industry dates of KVIFF 2018 (screenings will be followed by a Q&A with the director)
 - Tailor-made industry programme for the participants (incl. 2-to-1 meetings with industry professionals (producer, sales agent, festival programmer, funding representative, broadcaster/distributor)
 - Master Class and professional feedback by an internationally recognized director
 - Czech press agent to organise a press event and handle press and interview requests at KVIFF
 - Online presentation of all participants on EFP's and KVIFF's website
 - Social media campaign on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram
 - Europe! Cocktail in honour of the 10 selected directors with press attending (including presentation and a photocall)
 - Trailer promoting the 10 films of the selected directors in all media
 - Advertisement in Variety and Festival Catalogue
 - continued media partnership with Variety (tbc, feature on the directors in the Variety weekly), cineuropa, Films New Europea, Nisi Masa and Fred Film Radio
 - continued partnership with Sundance TV and Nespresso
-

the programme covers

- 4 hotel nights in Karlovy Vary (covered by the festival)
- Round Trip (economy)
- Festival accreditation

participation fee:

If your director will be selected by the Karlovy Vary International Film Festival, the financial contribution for the participation in Future Frames amounts € 700.

submission:

We agree with the a.m. selection criteria and participate in the nomination process of the event. We have selected the following young director:

EFP member institution:

Name of the director:

Original- and English title of the film:

Film School/University:

Contact details director (phone and email):

Contact details school (contact person / phone and email):

Vimeo link to stream the film with English subtitles (please note that KVIFF also accepts work in progress versions of the film for the nomination, ideally combined with further work examples of the director):

Please note a DCP with English subtitles needs to be available for the festival!

nomination deadline

Friday, March 9, 2018

Please e-mail the information to Nikolas Samalekos: samalekos@efp-online.com

Kindly let us also know if you are NOT planning to participate in FUTURE FRAMES this year.